TWO CHARGED IN THEFT OF POSTAL BOXES

PHOENIX— John Edward Bauer, 38 and Nathaniel Nathan Gatlin, 26, both of Glendale, Ariz., were arrested and charged in connection with the theft of two blue collection boxes stolen late Sunday or early Monday. The arrests were made yesterday through the efforts of agents of the U.S. Postal Inspection Service and officers from the Glendale Police Department. Both defendants appeared before U.S. Magistrate Judge Edward C. Voss this afternoon who ordered their detention until their detention hearings on XX.

U.S. Attorney Paul Charlton said of the thefts, "these thieves not only robbed U.S. mail but also took away holiday cheer from loved ones using the U.S. Postal Service to stay connected to loved ones during this time of year."

Postal Inspector in Charge, Shawn Tiller, indicated that the Postal Service has installed replacement collection boxes in each location and that the stolen boxes were recovered. He also reminded postal customers that "when depositing outgoing mail in a collection box, customers should always check their mail is deposited before the last collection time posted on that receptacle."

According to court documents, Gatlin and Bauer drove to the Scottsdale and Surprise Post Offices in the late night hours and removed the bolts securing the large blue postal collection boxes. They then took the boxes and their contents of mail to one of their homes and proceeded to open the mail. The items of value to include checks, cash and gift cards were retained by them for their own use. Bauer was arrested after he used one of a Lowe's gift card at one of the company's stores.

The collection boxes were located at the Papago Station Post Office, 7460 E. McDowell Road, Scottsdale, Ariz. , and the Surprise Post Office, 14955 W. Bell Road, Surprise, Ariz. The Papago Station Post Office last collected mail from the collection box on Saturday, December 17 at approximately 4:00 P.M. The Surprise Post Office last collected mail from the collection box on Sunday, December 18 at approximately 12:45 P.M. Customers depositing mail after the last known collection time at either location should call the Postal Inspection Service at (602) 223-3660 to file a mail theft complaint.

A conviction for Mail Theft carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison, a $250,000 fine or both. In determining an actual sentence, the assigned judge will consult the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines, which provide appropriate sentencing ranges. The judge, however, is not bound by those guidelines in determining a sentence.
